

George Furst - Partner

George A. Furst graduated from the University of California at Los Angeles in 1967 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science (Dean's List, Magna Cum Laude, Phi Beta Kappa) and from Yale University in 1969 with a Master of Arts degree in International Relations (focusing on international economics). He received his law degree in 1972 from Harvard Law School (Cum Laude).

Mr. Furst specializes in real estate law, primarily in the areas of real estate acquisitions and dispositions, secured lending and finance, joint ventures, entity structure and formation, leasing, and development and construction for office, retail, industrial and multi-family residential properties. He has also counseled numerous clients in real estate and other business disputes prior to and in connection with anticipated litigation. His clients have included institutional and private buyers and sellers, developers, tenants and landlords, borrowers and lenders, and managers and investors in a wide variety of real estate transactions.

For 26 years prior to joining Kulik Gottesman & Siegel, Mr. Furst was a partner and subsequently real estate counsel in the Los Angeles Office of Hughes Hubbard & Reed LLP. Previously he was a partner at Rifkind, Sterling & Levin, Incorporated in Beverly Hills. Mr. Furst is rated "AV" by Martindale-Hubbell which is the highest proficiency rating afforded by that advisory service. He is an active member of the bar associations of the State of California and Los Angeles County.
